INSTRUCTIONS

The filing of a bankruptcy case creates an "estate" under the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court which consists of all of the property of the debtor, wherever that property is located. Because the bankruptcy estate is so extensive and the jurisdiction of the court so broad, there may be lawsuits over the property or property rights of the estate. There also may be lawsuits concerning the debtor's discharge. If such a lawsuit is filed in a bankruptcy court, it is called an adversary proceeding.

A party filing an adversary proceeding must also must complete and file Form 104, the Adversary Proceeding Cover Sheet, unless the party files the adversary proceeding electronically through the court's Case Management/Electronic Case Filing system (CM/ECF). (CM/ECF captures the information on Form 104 as part of the filing process.) When completed, the cover sheet summarizes basic information on the adversary proceeding. The clerk of court needs the information to process the adversary proceeding and prepare required statistical reports on court activity.

The cover sheet and the information contained on it do not replace or supplement the filing and service of pleadings or other papers as required by law, the Bankruptcy Rules, or the local rules of court. The cover sheet, which is largely self-explanatory, must be completed by the plaintiff's attorney (or by the plaintiff if the plaintiff is not represented by an attorney). A separate cover sheet must be submitted to the clerk for each complaint filed.

Plaintiffs and Defendants. Give the names of the plaintiffs and defendants exactly as they appear on the complaint.

Attorneys. Give the names and addresses of the attorneys, if known.

Party. Check the most appropriate box in the first column for the plaintiffs and the second column for the defendants.

Demand. Enter the dollar amount being demanded in the complaint.

Signature. This cover sheet must be signed by the attorney of record in the box on the second page of the form. If the plaintiff is represented by a law firm, a member of the firm must sign. If the plaintiff is pro se, that is, not represented by an attorney, the plaintiff must sign.

CHARLOTTE DIVISION

Defendant.

8. The Debtor received no consideration for the transfer to the Defendant, and the Debtor was insolvent on the date that the transfer was made, or became insolvent as a result of such transfer, or the Debtor was engaged in business for which its remaining property was an unreasonably small capital, the Debtor believed that it would incur debts that would be beyond the Debtor's ability to pay such debts as they matured, or the Debtor made such transfer for the benefit of the Defendant (an insider) not in the ordinary course of business.

9. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 548 of Title 11 of the United States Code, the Trustee is entitled to avoidance of the transfer to the Defendant.

10. Pursuant to Section 550 of Title 11 of the United States Code, the transfer to the Defendant that is avoided pursuant to Section 548 shall be recovered for the benefit of the estate, and the Court should order that the value of the property be returned to the estate or in the alternative, that judgment be entered against the Defendant for the amount in controversy, plus interest at the applicable federal rate from and after the date of the filing of this Complaint.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff prays that the Court enter its order setting aside the transfer of the sum of $83,333.30 to the Defendant, and preserving that transfer for the benefit of the bankruptcy estate by way of order for return of the funds transferred, or judgment against the Defendant, plus interest.

FURTHER, the Trustee prays that the Court assess the costs of this action against the Defendant.

This the 7th day of November, 2017.
